GENERAL MANAGER NAMED FOR THE RESTORATION ON KING

Charlestowne Hotels, Inc. Hires New GM To Manage Luxury Property

CHARLESTON, SC - Charlestowne Hotels, Inc. today announced that Howard Letts has been hired as the new General Manager for The Restoration on King. The unique luxury property, located on the corner of King and Wentworth, is slated for an April 1, 2010 opening.

Mr. Letts brings over sixteen years of experience to the position. His experience includes senior positions at several Charleston properties including eight years as General Manager of the Clarion Hotel and most recently as Director of both Food and Beverage and Rooms and Cottages at The Belvidere Resort in Mount Pleasant. He has also worked with resorts in Asheville, NC and in the Grand Bahamas during his career.

“We are fortunate to have someone with Howard’s impressive background to oversee this unique property” stated Michael Tall, Senior Vice President of Charlestowne Hotels. “Hiring the highest quality managers is one of the factors that contribute to our ability to continue to grow and deliver exceptional results for our partners.”

Boasting 19th century architecture and minimalist design, this beautifully restored 16 room boutique hotel, The Restoration on King is ideally located in the heart of Charleston and overlooks the King Street Shopping District. Exposed brick, opulent kitchens and dramatic living spaces add to the classic character and contemporary style of these luxurious guest rooms. For reservations, call (877) 221-7202 or visit online at www.restorationonking.com.
